The coordinator for the work and organization of the Seminar is Dr. Roberto Ragusa of the Pontifical Council for the Laity.

Concelebration

All bishops and priests are asked to bring with them an alb and a white stole to use during the Eucharistic Concelebrations.

Book and information display

During the Seminar, there will be a place at the “Mondo Migliore” Center where representatives from the various movements and communities can put on display books and other promotional materials for the mutual benefit of all the participants.

Languages for the Seminar

The languages that will be used throughout the Seminar are French, English, Italian, and Spanish. Simultaneous translations will be provided in these four languages throughout the Congress. In the breakout session programmed for the afternoon of Friday, May 16, the working groups will be arranged according to these four languages.

Encounter with the Holy Father

On Saturday morning, May 17, the Holy Father will receive all the participants of the Seminar in a private Audience.

Remaining at the Centro Mondo Migliore after May 18

We would like to remind you that the rooms at the “Mondo Migliore” Center must be vacated by 9.00 Sunday morning, May 18. Anyone needing additional stay at the Center for more than these days should contact the “Mondo Migliore” Center directly in order to confirm availability. The cost for additional stay from May 18 and onwards will be at the expense of those who makes these arrangements.
